On Being Investigated By The F. B. I.

Our Washington correspondent writes the following report. In view of the fact that an increasing number of white people are being questioned in Mississippi by F.B.I. Agents, as an outgrowth of the Mississippi Summer Project, and are being harassed to an extent never before known, it is of special importance to give his conclusions:

a. When the FBI agent calls upon you, insist upon complete identification. They carry their credentials (plus a photograph), and you have a right to examine those credentials carefully and in detail. Copy down the name, address, and FBI number of the agent.

b. The FBI agent is supposed to tell you that you are not required to answer his questions. Some agents tell you that, but others do not. If the agent does not make that introductory statement, ask him if you are under a court order to provide information.

c. Say nothing to the FBI agent. When questioned, say "no comment."

d. The FBI agents are given special training in regard to the silent subject who refuses to answer questions. They will try to make you angry, in order that your tongue may be loosened. They will play upon your sympathy ("I don't like this assignment, Mr. - - - I'm a Southerner, too — but I have been ordered by my Kennedy-appointed superior to question you."), and they will try flattery as well. The best way to defeat such training is to apply the following three rules: (1) silence; (2) more silence; (3) still more silence.

e. Be careful of the FBI man who calls you down to his automobile and opens a conversation with you at that location. There will most certainly be a tape recorder in the car, and your conversation will find its way to Washington via air mail.

f. If meetings are held at your home, someone will check the numbers on the license plates in order to trace the name and address of the individual owner.

g. Your telephone could be tapped, and your house could be "bugged." You can throw a legal monkey wrench into those practices by saying, at a meeting or over the telephone, "If my conversation is being recorded, it is being done so without my permission." By recording that statement, the FBI will be destroying the court value of the "bug." (As you know, a "bug" is a small microphone.)

h. If you are under a court order to provide information to the FBI, you do not have to say anything without first consulting your attorney. In other words, you are entitled to the presence of your attorney before you make a statement.

i. FBI agents are graduates of law schools, i. e., they are lawyers. One of the weak points about the FBI is that its agents can frequently be spotted: A lawyer looks like a lawyer. The FBI uses persons other than lawyers, of course, and those persons frequently infiltrate organizations in order to engage in spy work.

March 31, 1965

Dear Southern Review Subscriber:

This letter is to announce the change in the organization of The Southern Review to the effect that Elmore D. Greaves, P. O. Box 426, Jackson, Mississippi, is assuming both the publishing and editorial control of the paper.

He is sending you, at this time, this edition of the very fine Louisiana paper, The Councilor, and will announce resumption of publication of The Southern Review in the matter of a few days.

I very much regret the delay in the publication of the paper, but due to increasingly heavy costs, and lack of subscription growth, I had undertaken to suspend publication until a more firm foundation could be laid. The Southern Review is now at this point; and all subscribers may be assured that their subscriptions will be fulfilled.

May I thank you for your kind consideration during this period of transition, and for your confidence in our endeavor.

Very sincerely,

Dear Patriot:

The White Christian Protective and Legal Defense Fund was formed by a group of Patriots from all walks of life, and representative of no particular political viewpoint, in response to the immense and ever increasing political pressure that is being brought to bear on Mississippi, its institutions, and its citizenry.

It was formed to provide legal defense to any White Christian Patriot who has or may be indicted and forced to stand before some real or imagined infraction of the Communist inspired Civil Rights Act or other laws passed by Congress, (As the Communists themselves declare to be the greatest assistance they have made in the capture of the United States).

Agents of organized Communist revolution and subversion have come into our State with the deliberate intent of inciting race war; their aim is the destruction of our Christian Civilization. The agents of the Federal Government have prevented our local officers from defending us from them. The Federal Government has provided the finest lawyers and unlimited financial resources to protect our enemies. Any society which cannot or will not protect and defend its domestic tranquility against atheistic revolution cannot expect to survive.

We are calling on all Patriotic Christians everywhere to join in this endeavor. For your convenience we are enclosing an envelope and a draft which we urge you to use. Please fill out this draft and return to us. Your help is urgently needed NOW. Together we do what we cannot do alone.

Prayerfully yours,

Rules and Procedure for the Placing and Collection of Jars.

I

The placing and collection of all Jars in each of the counties will be under the supervision of a County Chairman who will be appointed by the State Chairman who will provide him with proper credentials. Each County Chairman will maintain an accurate record showing the Serial Numbers, times and amounts of Collections and Locations of all the Jars in his County.

II

Each Jar will have the Top sealed on by several rounds of tape, plus candle or sealing wax over the tape.

III

Each Jar will have a Serially Numbered PLACARD tied, taped and sealed to the Jar in such a way that it cannot be removed without tearing and damaging it.

IV

Jars must be placed in secure locations where they will be not likely to be stolen, pilfered or accidentally broken.

V

The Jars will remain exposed to the general public for donations until such time as the STATE CHAIRMAN terminates this Drive and orders their collection and removal. Upon such order, all County Chairmen collect each Jar according to Rule 7, remove the Jar from location, remove the serially-numbered PLACARD from the Jar, and return the PLACARD to the State Chairman, with a notation on the back of the PLACARD showing the location, the County, and the figure collected.

VI

Under unusual circumstances, such as the closing of a business or unusual danger to the Jar, a County Chairman may elect to make an early collection of a Jar.

VII

All Jar Collections will be made as follows: The County Chairman, or his specifically designated assistant representative, will open the Jar in the presence of the manager of the business establishment, count the money, and leave a receipt made out to the Jar number, with the manager of the establishment in whose place the Jar was maintained. The County Chairman will then purchase a Cashier's Check or Money Order, in Triplicate, transferring the Collection to THE WHITE CHRISTIAN PROTECTIVE AND LEGAL DEFENSE FUND, Box 979, Jackson, Mississippi, and return a copy of the Cashier's Check or Money Order to the location for display. The cost of the check or money order may be subtracted from the collection. No other subtractions may be made for any reason. A separate check or money order will be used for each Jar.

VIII

If an early collection takes place before the end of this Drive, a new Jar and PLACARD may be installed in the location. No Jar and PLACARD may be used more than once, and no Jar and PLACARDS may be moved or transferred from one location to another.

IX

All PLACARDS, both new and used, will be returned to the State Chairman at the termination of this Drive.

County Chairmen will be extremely diligent at all times to see that the dignity and financial integrity of the Fund is maintained in the County. Jars and locations will be kept under close watch and accurate and adequate records will be kept.

[redacted] advised on February 2, 1965, that he had personal knowledge that a State Klan Cabinet meeting was held on [redacted] at [redacted]

[redacted] Jackson, Mississippi. The meeting was conducted by SAM BOWERS, Imperial Wizard. WKKKKOM. [redacted]

[redacted], was not present; however, he had attended previous State Klan Cabinet meetings.

During the meeting the main topic of conversation was the fund raising for the defense of eighteen defendants recently arrested in the murders of MICHAEL SCHWERNER, ANDREW GOODMAN, and JAMES CHANEY. Letters under the letterhead of the White Christian Protective and Legal Defense Fund (WCPLDF) along with "The Articles of Formation" and the "Rules and Procedures for Placing and Collection of Jars" were distributed to the group. It was brought out at the meeting that only active Klansmen would be allowed to be on the Board of Directors of the WCPLDF, which included ELMORE GREAVES, State Chairman. The distribution of the jars soliciting funds and the letters requesting money were to be distributed throughout the State of Mississippi. The money is to be kept in the Jackson-Hinds Bank, Jackson, Mississippi.

The mailing address of the WCPLDF is Post Office Box 426, Jackson, Mississippi, and Box 979, Jackson, Mississippi.

The following article, captioned "Newly Organized Group Launches State Drive", appeared in the January 18, 1965, issue of The Leader-Call, daily newspaper at Laurel, Mississippi:

Newly Organized Group Launches State Drive

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A $1 million fund raising drive was underway in Mississippi today to "aid persons being subjected to political harassment, arrest and prosecution by the federal government."

A newly born organization, listed as the White Christian Protective and Legal Defense fund, pledged aid to the 18 charged in connection with the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia. Elmore Douglass Greaves, a Madison County farmer, author, and editor of the Southern Review, said the group plans to place containers at business establishments throughout the state.

In addition, every public official in Mississippi will be asked to contribute. Letters are being sent to conservative groups throughout the nation asking for help.

Greaves said the group would establish and administer a fund for the relief of the "financial distress of persons who are white Christians."

"The enormous resources of the federal government are being used in the interests of minority groups to the point of harassment, arrests and prosecution of many persons in Mississippi," he said. "Since these citizens are largely working people with limited resources they will need to have funds to protect their rights."

"We feel their rights must be protected. The association hopes to co-ordinate its efforts with other funds in the state."

"Funds will be available not only to those involved in the Philadelphia case but to any white Christian victims of political arrest and persecution in Mississippi."

Greaves said a board of directors will be named consisting of one person from each congressional district.

[redacted] related on February 15, 1965, that [redacted] WCPLDF, had told [redacted] a member of the Board of Directors for the fund, that ELMORE GREAVES, the State Chairman of the WCPLDF had met with a [redacted] of the Neshoba County Fund and [redacted] and GREAVES agreed that the WCPLDF would not solicit in Neshoba County, and the two funds would not be merged. [redacted] stated that he understood that the Meridian defendants were unable to pay their attorney's fees and were unable to obtain assistance from the Neshoba Defense Fund. He added that they would be happy to render aid to the Meridian defendants, and requested that [redacted] furnish the names and addresses of the men involved, the names of their lawyers, and the amount of the legal fee involved.

[redacted] advised on February 23, 1965, that he heard that on February 23, 1965, [redacted] met to discuss Klan activities and fund raising in Neshoba and Lauderdale Counties at which time [redacted] related that he had talked with [redacted] a short time previously and that [redacted] had related that Governor PAUL JOHNSON had told him that he was out to break up the WKKKKOM and that Governor JOHNSON did not trust ELMORE GREAVES, Publisher of The Southern Review and State Chairman of the White Christian Protective and Legal Defense Fund.

The WCPLDF was created by the WKKKKOM but has met with little success because of the competition with the Neshoba County Fund.

[redacted] advised on March 3, 1965, that a short time after the Grand Jury indictment regarding the individuals arrested in Neshoba County with relation to the murder of the three civil rights workers, persons who were subscribers to The Southern Review, a newspaper printed in Jackson, Mississippi, received a letter from ELMORE D. GREAVES, Editor of The Southern Review. This letter was on the letterhead stationery of the White Christian Protective and Legal Defense Fund (WCPLDF) and named ELMORE D. GREAVES the State Chairman. The return address on this letter was Post Office Box 426, Jackson, Mississippi. The Board of Directors was given as Mr. GLENN SWETTMAN, Biloxi, b7C Mississippi; Mr. I. H. "PETE" SHUMAKER, Kosciusko, Mississippi; Rev. DELMAR DENNIS, Meridian, Mississippi, and JAMES M. HOOPER, Sidon, Mississippi. [redacted] are known to be members of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi (WKKKKOM). SWETTMAN is a Province Giant in an unknown province, possibly Province 1 or 2. This letter requested the receiver to contribute money to the defense of any "white christian patriot" who has or may be indicted and forced to stand trial for some real or imagined infraction of the communist-inspired Civil Rights Act. Some of these letters were accompanied by a sheet containing the articles of formation of the organization and rules and procedures for the placing and collection of jars to be used in collecting money for the organization. A bank draft to be drawn through the Jackson-Hinds Bank, Jackson, Mississippi, was also included with the letter.

b7C b7D A meeting was held on or about [redacted] at [redacted], Jackson, Mississippi, for the purpose of obtaining the backing of the WKKKKOM in support of the WCPLDE. In attendance at this meeting were: SAM BOWERS, [redacted] ELMORE GREAVES, MEREDITH TATUM, Jackson, Mississippi, [redacted] Mississippi, [redacted] Mississippi, [redacted] Mississippi, and about eight other individuals. The meeting was held in [redacted]

The meeting was opened by SAM BOWERS, much in the same manner in which a regular Klan meeting would be opened, with a word of prayer and a short discussion of the situation with relation to the arrests of the individuals at Neshoba County and Meridian, Mississippi. BOWERS thereafter introduced MEREDITH TATUM.

TATUM stated he had recently traveled to Philadelphia, Mississippi, as a representative of The Southern Review newspaper and had interviewed Sheriff RAINEY. TATUM discussed his conversation with Sheriff RAINEY and the fact that these individuals were being persecuted and harassed. He thereafter discussed the fact that he and other individuals had established the WCPLDF in an effort to raise money for the legal defense of the individuals arrested, as well as any other persons arrested in the State of Mississippi on civil rights charges.

At the conclusion of the talk by MEREDITH TATUM, ELMORE GREAVES, who had left the meeting for a few minutes, returned; and he also made a talk on the need for defense funds for individuals arrested on civil rights charges. SAM BOWERS again took the floor of the meeting and discussed the instructions for the collection of money and the way in which the operation for collection would be organized. Each Province Giant signed for and received 100 placards for each county in his province. BOWERS explained that these cards carried a serial number and were to be attached to gallon jars and subsequently placed in places of business for the collection of money. BOWERS further stated the jars were to be sealed with wax and he gave considerable instruction in their preparation. He said the Province Giants would be held responsible for each placard furnished.

BOWERS advised the Province Giants to return to their provinces and secure a county chairman for the fund drive in each county. These county chairmen were preferably not to be members of the WKKKKOM. Persons were to be recruited to assist the county chairman in the distribution of the collection jars. It was also preferable that these individuals not be members of the WKKKKOM. The actual distribution and the places selected for depositing the jars were to be up to the county chairman involved. BOWERS stressed the fact that the WKKKKOM would be in complete charge of the money and the drive at all times.

BOWERS stated that a person-to-person drive was to be pursued in an effort to collect larger amounts of money from more wealthy individuals. These person-to-person contacts were to be carried out by the county chairman and his assistant.

BOWERS said that the county chairman and his assistants were not to have knowledge that the campaign was being handled by the WKKKKOM.

The following is the procedure outlined by BOWERS for picking up the jars after money has been contributed:

The order to pick up a jar must originate with the Board of Governors who will either advise the Province Giant involved or the county chairman involved that the jar is to be picked up. Thereafter, a county chairman or one of his assistants will go to the business place involved, where he will detach the placard with the serial number and on the back, enter the name of the establishment. The assistant will then unseal the jar in the presence of the establishment owner, and the two of them will together count the money. The assistant will furnish the owner of the establishment a receipt in the amount of the money contained in the jar. He will also enter this amount on back of the placard. The assistant will then go to a bank and obtain a cashier's check in duplicate for the amount of the money in the jar. He will return a duplicate of the cashier's check to the owner of the establishment for display to the public in order that the public may know where the money went. The cashier's check will be made payable to the WCPLDF. The check will thereafter be handled through the chain of command back to the Province Giant involved, who will in turn mail the check for deposit to the WCPLDF, Jackson-Hinds Bank, Post Office Box 979, Jackson, Mississippi. The Province Giant does not mail the money in; the county chairman mails the money in to the bank. The county chairman retains the used placard and in the event the jar is used a second time, a new placard with a new serial number is attached.

SAM BOWERS explained that the Board of Directors of the WCPLDF was eventually to grow in number to a total of ten, which would include two persons from each congressional district in the State of Mississippi. At least six of these members were to be members of the WKKKKOM. The Board of Directors is to decide who gets money from the fund and the amount. As much of the money as possible is to be furnished to members of the WKKKKOM.

b7C After the speech by BOWERS, ELMORE GREAVES again took the floor and discussed the possibility of individuals being approached by Agents of the FBI. GREAVES [redacted] [redacted] is a past prosecuting attorney in the State of Mississippi. He told the persons present at the meeting that in the event they or any other persons were approached by Agents, that that person should immediately tell the Agent he did not wish to make any statement whatsoever, or he could ask what the Agent wished to discuss with him, and in the event the Agent wanted to talk about something involving civil rights, the person could say he would discuss anything except civil rights. In the event the Agent persists in attempting to interview the individual, the individual can ask the Agents if they have a court order or a warrant for arrest. The individual questioned still does not have to talk with the Agent until he obtains counsel from a lawyer, if the Agent has either a court order or a warrant for arrest. He can thereafter confer with his lawyer prior to answering any questions. GREAVES stated that in any event, the individual should obey the advice of his lawyer. This talk by GREAVES concluded the meeting.

The described meeting was held on a Sunday afternoon beginning at 5:00 p.m.

b2 b7D [redacted] advised on March 18, 1965, that a man named GREAVES, who is the Secretary or Treasurer of the WCPLDF was present at a meeting of [redacted] at Jackson, Mississippi, on [redacted]. At the meeting it was reported that the Jackson-Hinds Bank had refused to handle any more money collected by the WCPLDF, and the bank had disassociated itself in every way from the fund. It was pointed out that the money would continue to be collected at the post office box which had been previously furnished as the mailing address for the WCPLDF. GREAVES, the Secretary or Treasurer for the WCPLDF, is keeping a record of all contributions and disbursements; and he reports directly to SAM BOWERS, according to source.

[] advised on March 22, 1965, that a meeting was scheduled of the five members of the Board of the WCPLDF at Brookhaven, Mississippi, on [] for the purpose of authorizing HEREDEEN, one of the Directors of the WCPLDF, to come to the aid of any white man who gets in trouble or is prosecuted by the Federal Government. On November 3, 1964, an observation was made at Room 4, 416 North State Street, Jackson, Mississippi; and the name of MEREDITH W. TATUM appeared on the door. The three-story brick building at that address is occupied by Primos' Number Three Restaurant on the ground floor.

ELMO (ELMORE) GREAVES has stated that he must have at least $700 per month to publish the paper, $250 of which is his salary.

J. V. CARR, Assistant to the Secretary of State, State Capitol Building, Jackson, Mississippi, advised on September 30, 1964, that he had no charter in his office for The Southern Review newspaper.

The following article captioned, "On Being Investigated by the F.B.I.", appeared in the October 1, 1964, issue of The Southern Review:

On Being Investigated By The F. B. I.

Our Washington correspondent writes the following report. In view of the fact that an increasing number of white people are being questioned in Mississippi by F.B.I. Agents, as an outgrowth of the Mississippi Summer Project, and are being harassed to an extent never before known, it is of special importance to give his conclusions:

a. When the FBI agent calls upon you, insist upon complete identification. They carry their credentials (plus a photograph), and you have a right to examine those credentials carefully and in detail. Copy down the name, address, and FBI number of the agent.

b. The FBI agent is supposed to tell you that you are not required to answer his questions. Some agents tell you that, but others do not. If the agent does not make that introductory statement, ask him if you are under a court order to provide information.

d. The FBI agents are given special training in regard to the silent subject who refuses to answer questions. They will try to make you angry, in order that your tongue may be loosened. They will play upon your sympathy ("I don't like this assignment, Mr. - - - I'm a Southerner, too — but I have been ordered by my Kennedy-appointed superior to question you."), and they will try flattery as well. The best way to defeat such training is to apply the following three rules: (1) silence; (2) more silence; (3) still more silence.

e. Be careful of the FBI man who calls you down to his automobile and opens a conversation with you at that location. There will most certainly be a tape recorder in the car, and your conversation will find its way to Washington via air mail.

g. Your telephone could be tapped, and your house could be "bugged." You can throw a legal monkey wrench into those practices by saying, at a meeting or over the telephone, "If my conversation is being recorded, it is being done so without my permission." By recording that statement, the FBI will be destroying the court value of the "bug." (As you know, a "bug" is a small microphone.)

h. If you are under a court order to provide information to the FBI, you do not have to say anything without first consulting your attorney. In other words, you are entitled to the presence of your attorney before you make a statement.

i. FBI agents are graduates of law schools, i. e., they are lawyers. One of the weak points about the FBI is that its agents can frequently be spotted: A lawyer looks like a lawyer. The FBI uses persons other than lawyers, of course, and those persons frequently infiltrate organizations in order to engage in spy work.

Reply To Attorney General Robert Kennedy's Report On How He Is Making Progress In Mississippi.

Foreword By

Congressman John Bell Williams

Congressman Williams, as this to say about negro Jim Meredith, the blackamor of Oxford:

"The Washington Evening Star of January 30, 1963, quoted James H. Meredith as saying, 'I have concluded that the Negro should not return to the University of Mississippi. However, I have decided that I, James H. Meredith, will register for the second semester at the University of Mississippi.'"

"With that statement, James H. Meredith publicly resigned from the negro race.

"Thus, James H. Meredith arrogated unto himself miracle powers heretofore reserved exclusively to God, for only he can breathe life into a body and assign its race. In spite of the Supreme Courts 'modern psychological knowledge' to the contrary, Meredith's own statement must serve to endorse the late James K. Vardaman's assertion that the negro, like the mule, has neither pride of ancestry nor hope of posterity. Indeed, while Meredith might declare himself no longer a member of the Negro race, it does not follow that he can, ipso facto, establish himself as a member of the white race."

A source advised that on February 15, 1965, approximately 200 members of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (OKKKK) from the State of Mississippi met at Brookhaven, Mississippi. Those present decided to defect from the OKKKK and to form their own Klan group in Mississippi to be known as the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi.

Greaves Voices Opposition To Proposed Amendments

Elmore D. Greaves, editor of the Southern Review, said Friday, he opposed the constitutional amendments set for vote Aug. 16.

His complete statement is as follows:

"When the Mississippi Legislature adjourned a whole battery of State politicians came out with public statements and said Mississippians must pass a Constitutional Amendment on August 17. The reason given at first was that if the Amendments were not passed, federal registrars would be sent in. Last Tuesday the registrars came to Madison and Leflore Counties. This showed two things: (1) that L. B. J. and his Negro cohorts have the utmost contempt for Mississippi's weak, compromising politicians; and (2) that L.B.J. will not hesitate to betray his friends if it is to his advantage. Also, the main reason the State politicians advanced for the Amendments' passage was now refuted.

"Now a committee called 'Mississippians for the Amendments' and chairmaned by Gov. Johnson has begun to run expensive ads in newspapers, advocating passage of the Amendments for still another reason. The ads say in part, 'The new Federal Voting Rights Act suspends all literacy and character qualifications for voting, as these apply to Negroes. . . but leave the Whites subject to Mississippi's strict voter requirements.'

"But the Voting Rights Act of 1965 says, Sec. 2. 'No voting qualification or prerequisite to voting, or standard, practice, or procedure shall be imposed or applied by any State or political subdivision to deny or abridge the right of any citizen of the United States to vote on account of race or color.' This means the Federal registrars are required to register any person, black or white, regardless of race or color.

"Have Lyndon's politicians in Mississippi even read the Act? Or, if having read it, do they understand it? If they have both, what is their reason for urging so outrageous a deceit upon the white people of Mississippi?

"If we vote for this Amendment we will be solely responsible for cutting our own throats—and that is exactly what the National Democratic Party wants us to do. We will never have legal recourse again. This is a National Democratic Party

Bill of Lyndon Johnson and Hubert Humphrey, avidly supported by the so-called Freedom Democratic Party.

"When Mississippians vote on the proposed changing of the Constitution on August 17, 1965, an important moral consideration is at stake. If they vote for the amendments which lower the voter qualifications to almost zero, they will be voting to give inalienable rights away themselves. If Mississippians vote against the amendments, they will vote to keep Mississippi's inalienable rights intact and let the central government in Washington do whatever it desires toward Constitutional destruction. It is fundamental that rights and privileges given away (voted or otherwise) are irretrievable but rights and privileges taken away (by Washington) are retrievable.

"I am requesting that this news release be run as all of the supporters of the Mississippi Voting Rights Amendment have been able to get front page coverage in the Jackson newspapers. I should also like to ask the question: Who is financing the Committee of which Gov. Johnson is chairman, the 'Mississippians for the Amendment'? This group is running large and expensive ads in weekly papers all over the state, and also the major newspapers. Are the taxpayers paying for this propaganda program?

BOWERS then talked some about his appearance before the HCUA at Washington, D.C., and that he was scheduled to appear on the first of February and that DEAVOURS NIX and [redacted] were also scheduled to appear at this time. Additionally, he stated that he and DEAVOURS NIX have been harassing the FBI men by taking pictures of agents when they come out of the Federal Building. ANTI-COMMUNIST CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION (ACCA),
ALSO KNOWN AS
ORIGINAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (OKKKK)

A source advised on October 13, 1965, that the ACCA was formed February, 1965, when members of the OKKKK residing in the Sixth Louisiana Congressional District broke away from the State organization in the Fall of 1964.

The source stated members were told that even though the organization's name had been changed to ACCA they should still consider themselves to be Klansmen and that they would continue to operate as Klansmen.

In February, 1965, ACCA filed Articles of Incorporation with the Secretary of State's Office in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Source advised that the purpose of the ACCA is to promote Americanism, white supremacy and to maintain segregation.

A hearing was held in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Louisiana, New Orleans, during the week of September 11, 1965, wherein the ACCA and various individuals were held to answer a Justice Department petition seeking a temporary injunction against interference with the activities of civil rights workers in the Bogalusa, Louisiana area.

Charles H. Christmas of Amite, Louisiana, identified as the Grand Dragon of this organization, told the court that the Klan went out of existence four months previously and was succeeded by the ACCA. In reorganizing, ACCA retained as its officers the existing Klan officers, bylaws, and basic organization, according to Christmas. He further told the court that the ACCA membership was restricted to the Sixth Congressional District of Louisiana. Every oath in the ACCA was the same as that of the Klan, and the meeting places were often the same.

A source advised that on February 15, 1964, approximately 200 members of the original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK) from the State of Mississippi met at Brookhaven, Mississippi. Those present decided to defect from the KKK and to form their own klan group in Mississippi to be known as the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi.

This source advised that the aims and purposes of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi are to preserve Christian civilization, protect and promote white supremacy and the segregation of the races, to fight communism and to extend the dignity, heritage, and rights of the white race of America.

We were asked by a Representative to pass copies of this paper out in the House.

I thought you might get a kick out of seeing it, if you have not already.

I remember that you spoke of a Communist newspaper the day I had my interview. I thought that if this was not the one you spoke of, it might be quite similar.

/ You will have to excuse the brevity of this note, and mistakes in the typing. I am having to use an electric typewriter, and having to hurry because the debate on the liquor bill is going on at the moment.

RACIAL MATTERS (KLAN)

On May 5, 1966, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he attended a public rally held at an automobile race track in the Suqualena Community of Lauderdale County, which is located northwest of Meridian, Mississippi, off Highway 19. The rally was sponsored by the WCPLDF. The confidential source identified the WCPLDF as a fund raising organization utilized by the WKKKKOM.

The confidential source advised that circulars were printed and distributed in the Meridian, Mississippi, area publicizing the rally as a means to acquaint the public with the dangers of the National Police Bureaucracy. The advance publicity indicated that speakers would include the victims of national police persecution such as:

Lawrence Rainey, Sheriff, Neshoba County, Mississippi, and a group from Neshoba County and Meridian, Mississippi, who were arrested in connection with the slaying of the three civil rights workers on June 21, 1964, near Philadelphia, Mississippi.

In addition the circulars stated that the victims in the Forrest County affair, such as Cecil Sessum Deavours Nix, and Sam H. Bowers, Jr. would also speak.

The circular indicated a free will offering for the purpose of legal defense will be accepted at the meeting.

The confidential source advised that the meeting commenced at 6:30 p.m. and ended at approximately 10:30 p.m. The master of ceremonies was Reverend A. J. "Jake" Burns, Meridian, Mississippi. Burns introduced the following individuals who spoke briefly about the persecution by the national police bureau in the FBI and their subsequent arrests in connection with the firebombing death of Negro civil rights worker Vernon Dahmer in Forrest County, Mississippi:

Cecil Sessum,
Deavours Nix
Henry DeBoxtel
Charles Lowe
Clifton Lowe
Melvin Sennatt Martin
James Lyons
Billy Roy Pitts
William Ray Smith

The principal speaker was Sam Holloway Bowers, Jr., Imperial Wizard, WKKKKOM, Laurel, Mississippi. Bowers denounced the FBI and claimed that the only Bible ever used by the FBI was a 670-page manual given to their agents who are professional liars and interested only in persecuting white Christians. Bowers denounced J. Edgar Hoover as a pawn and described him as a "false God with feet of clay."

Source estimated that there were less than 200 people present, however, many of the individuals were juveniles.

He further stated that no unusual incidents occurred at the rally. The confidential source said that buckets were distributed throughout the crowd and although no announcement was made, he believed the collection taken amounted to less than $50.00. He noted that several Klansmen commented to him about the disappointing and discouraging lack of crowd and contributions. Subscriptions to "The Southern Review," a Klan sponsored newspaper, published by Elmore Greaves, Jackson, Mississippi, were solicited at the rally.

The confidential source advised that Travis Buckley, a Klan attorney, and present candidate for U. S. House of Representatives, was introduced at the rally and he journeyed among the crowd shaking hands and soliciting their support in his bid for the nomination for the U. S. Congress.

In addition, James Swan spoke to the rally and proclaimed that he was seeking the nomination for Governor for the State of Mississippi. He stated that any man who was ashamed to share the platform with "these men" is not worthy enough to sit in the Governor's mansion.

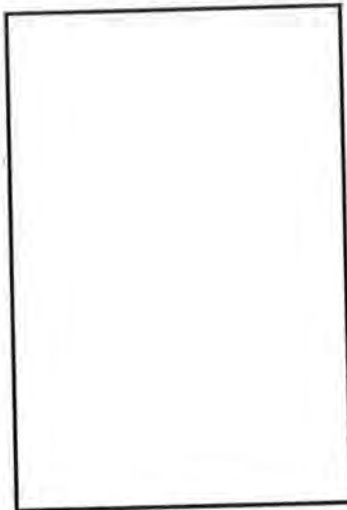

The confidential source described the crowd as unresponsive and that the speakers' stand did more applauding than the audience.

Source stated that none of the individuals arrested in connection with the murder of the three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Mississippi, appeared on the speakers' platform and that contrary to advance publicity given to the rally indicating Sheriff Lawrence Rainey would appear, he did not.

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. Source advised that while a large percentage of the subscribers to the publication are Klansmen, not all subscribers belong to the Klan.

In November, 1965, a subscription drive increased the circulation of this paper to approximately twice the number [redacted] Despite the increase, source advised that "The Southern Review" continues to operate in the red and exists only from issue to issue.

Source was of the opinion the scurrilous nature of recent editorials kept the businessmen from supporting the paper through advertising and he believed the poor business management of the paper on the part of ELMORE P. GRAVES keeps the paper on the brink of failure.

The above described [redacted] are being retained in the Bulky Exhibit Room of the Jackson Office.
